Syrian Judges report for the Bath hamster Show 1st July 2023

Thank you to the Midland and Southern club for inviting me to judge at the Bath show. This was my third and final judging assessment for my National Judging qualification and I was delighted to pass. Thank you to Susan Washbrook my book steward and assessor, Alice for her able pen stewarding. It was only her second pen stewarding, and she was a great help and very efficient. Well done. Also, thanks to Jean Tye for being show secretary and everyone who helped. It was so nice to meet up with members from the south who we don't see so often. Class winners were:

SH Golden (Pen 103) F. Lacked ticking and richness of colour but a decent well bodied type. STBF. 72.5, 4 entries

SH Cream (Pen 209) M, BEC. Lovely type and head with good colour. Nice coat texture and density of fur. 77+, 11 entries

SH AOC male (Pen 304) M, Honey. Even ticking colour and nice type and head. 77.5, 5 entries

SH AOC female (Pen 403) F, Honey. Nice colour with decent type and good head. 75.5, 6 entries

LH Patterned (Pen 1101) M. BEC banded, decent type but uneven band. Reasonable skirt., 72, 2 entries

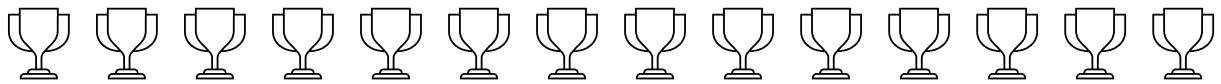

LH Satin (Pen 1201) M, BEC. Very dry, flaky skin. Reasonable colour and coat length. 67, 1 entry

Congratulations to Tristar Hamstery on winning BIS & RBIS.

This is my hamster Scruff he's really energetic, he's a long-haired Syrian hamster. He loves running around his cage. This is Scruff drinking from his water bottle!
