

Show Secretary's Report for the M&SHC Shurdington held on 21/10/23.

Wow, where did all the entries come from? 111 Syrians and 57 dwarfs one of the biggest entries we have had for a while.

My thanks go to Victoria Holt for judging the Syrians and to Reece Minerve and Sue Carter for book and pen stewarding. I hope you managed to get home ok Victoria after the problems you had with your car coming to the show.

The dwarf section was scheduled to be judged by Andrew Bryan but due to the chaos caused by Storm Babet he was unable to make it to the show because of flooding on the railway tracks. So many thanks go to Sue Parker who stepped into the breach and judged with David Baglin book stewarding.

Best in show dwarf was an opal Campbell belonging to Lilliput Hams and Reserve was a normal winter white belonging to Alpha Stud. Best in Show Syrian was a long-haired rex black eyed cream belonging to Tristar who also took Reserve with a short haired dark eared white.

I would like to thank Emily Whiteley for doing majority of the Pet Show paperwork – thanks Emily you were a great help! By doing a little 'arm twisting' Emma Jane Lievesley was coerced into judging the pet section with the help of Pete Logsdail (thanks both) and the Best Pet in Show was a pretty tortoiseshell Syrian belonging to Emily's Mum, Fiona. I have to say that Emma Jane had no idea who owned any of the pets present today.

Mike and Mark brought lots of hamster related things; Mike's Christmas cards seemed to be selling well. Wendy Palmer and family brought a basic kitchen (tea, coffee, snacks etc) as no one volunteered to do this. Susan brought the tombola which raised funds for the Club and, as well as dealing with the kitchen, Wendy also presided over sales – thanks to all.

Finally, my thanks as always go to those folk who set up the hall in the morning and the ones who put everything away and made sure the hall was as clean as when we arrived. Today was the AGM and the minutes will be in the Journal for you to read. I would like to end this report with a little thank you to Wendy and Ged for everything they have done for the Club over the past 20 odd years. Here's hoping that once you have had a rest from it all you will come back for another 20 plus years.
