OVERALL BEST PET IN SHOW: Elesha Gay - Rabbit

Shurdington Show, 26th October 2024

We had a total entry of 129 entries, which was pleasing. The 73 Syrians gave Reece something to get his teeth into for his first trainee judging, which I'm pleased to say he passed – David was his assessor and Emma was pen stewarding for the first time. The 56 dwarfs were ably judged by Andrew with Tee roped in as book steward and Donna acting as runner bringing the judging slips to me – many thanks to you all.

I would like to thank Emily who took on the responsibility of taking pet entries (30 of them) and who moved into the annex room when the excited chatter of the pet owners meant that those attending the AGM could not hear what was being said! Wendy and Megan judged the pets and Best Pet in Show was a lovely rabbit belonging to Elesha Gay.

Sales of hamsters plus food etc were handled by Sue and Mark. Mike had yet more of his beautiful hamster related items for sale and Wendy provided breakfast and a delicious lunch – grateful thanks to all.

Best and Reserve Best in Show for Syrian and Dwarf was a clean sweep for Tristar and Lilliput respectively.

Once again, I have to thank those folks who set the tables up first thing in the morning and also those who helped put them away and also who swept the floor of debris. I've said this many times before but if we leave a hall in pristine condition then we are more likely to be allowed to use the venue another time.
